“New Wineskins For the 21st Century” is KLN 2013 Conference Theme

“New Wineskins For the 21st Century” is the theme for the 2013 Kingdom Life Network conference held at Grace Chapel in Elizabethtown, PA.

Henry Buckwalter welcomed the conference attendees and introduced the leaders of all the networks. It was the first time that all the ministries leaders were in attendance at the same time. E. Daniel Martin shared direction from their prayer time leading up to the service that “God is going to unearth hidden treasures (people) in this conference” and he also invited participation in an outreach of prayer, healing, and evangelism to a local Saturday market this coming Saturday.

Host Pastor Mel Weaver welcomed everyone and led in an opening conference prayer. A worship team from LifeGate Community Church of Elizabethtown (New Testament Fellowship) led attendees in extended praise and worship. Many were moved to their knees, with hands raised, in humble adoration and thankfulness.

Frank Zeager, 83 years old, was asked to come forward and was blessed by many leaders’ declarations over him ...a treasure unearthed.

Koinonia Fellowship of Churches Pastor John Mitchell was introduced and he shared that today’s technology is not meant for the enemy, but should be used for the Kingdom.

Lawrence Chiles followed with a message on “New Wineskins”. Jesus was not popular in “the hood”. They just did not get it. Tambourines making noise on every street corner church in our large metropolitan city does not mean church is going on. The kingdom needs expanded outside the church walls. Jesus came to seek the lost. The Kingdom of God is causing the denominations and non-denominations to work together ...to get the job done. New wineskins do not necessarily have to be new, it is just doing it “new again” ...this time the right way. We need more unsaved friends than saved friends. The sound of Jesus is a delight to those that have not yet heard.

Time was given to ask the Lord what He wants to say to each of our hearts.
