

Jonathan Conrathe

thousands to the Lord, Jonathan has also planted churches in various nations.

Since 2008, in addition to the evangelism, Jonathan has focused on training and raising up local church based mission teams with a vision to multiply effective workers in the Gospel and thus help churches in the task of winning the nations for Christ. This equipping ministry is called Mission24 with the vision that at any point in a 24 hour day there will be a mission team out somewhere in the world spreading the Gospel.

Jonathan is married to Elaine and they have three boys, Nathan, Joshua and Benjamin who will be accompanying him to the conference.

Jonathan Conrathe, an English evangelist, who has seen approximately 250,000 people receive Jesus as their Savior and whose ministry is followed by signs, wonders and miracles, will be the keynote speaker for Impact 2019 the KLN biannual conference.

Sensing the call of God strongly in his heart, Jonathan turned down the potential of a career in a successful business and has lived by faith ever since. It was at the age of nineteen that he became a full-time evangelist, training with Don Double of Good News Crusade.

Jonathan established Valley Ministries with a vision to take the miracles of Jesus to the spiritual valleys of the nation (Joel 3:14.) He has now been in full-time ministry for 30 years. In addition to leading
