KINGDOM LIFE NETWORK Congregates Conclude Conference with Communion

The final day but not the final chapter ...those attending KLN's 5th year IMPACT 2014 conference were stirred to go forth and pursue the vision God puts in their hearts. Mel Weaver, host pastor of Grace Chapel shared encouraging words and led in communion.

"It was a fresh topping of dessert concluding a 4 day smorgasbord of goodness," said one attendee.

The morning worship was led by Sonya Penya and team. Luke & Edna Weaver were recipients of a Doctorate in Christian Leadership presented by the KLN leadership and PTL-Institute of Mission Studies.

E. Daniel Martin moderated the introductions Mel High and his wife. They have had years of service in church planting in Central America and they shared encouraging words of reminder that we are chosen of God. Kurt Heisey of Destiny International spoke about many miracle salvations in China as a result of business opportunities he has there and Daniel & Marlene Martinez shared about their vision to return to Uruguay. Clair & Millie Stauffer, Allan & Rose Chambers, David & Grace Kandole, Vard & Eileen Gainor, Brian & Lisa Harper, and Chinedum & Nkechi Uwaga; all were introduced as key resources to the KLN network at large.

Camp Awake children arrived with music, memorized scripture, and testimonies. Nearly 60 campers ages 8-12 were challenged to transform their circles of influence.

Host pastor Mel Weaver then closed a wonderful conference with a message and communion

FOR ME THE CONFERENCE WAS ABOUT LEARNING TO LIVE FOR GOD!
